Erasmus+ International Staff Week 2026

Internationalisation, Mobility and Academic Cooperation in Higher Education

 18–22 May 2026 | Optional: 23 May 2026

 Celje & Ljubljana, Slovenia

The International School of Social and Business Studies (ISSBS / MFDPŠ) invites international academic and administrative staff from partner higher education institutions to participate in the Erasmus+ International Staff Week 2026.

The Staff Week is designed as a professional, interactive, and collaborative programme focusing on internationalisation strategies, Erasmus+ mobility, inclusive higher education, teaching innovation, and international research cooperation. The programme combines staff training activities in Celje with participation in an international academic conference in Ljubljana, offering a unique blend of practice, policy, and research.

Aims of the Staff Week

- Strengthening international and inter-institutional cooperation
- Exchanging good practices in Erasmus+ mobility and internationalisation
- Supporting inclusive policies and teaching practices
- Exploring opportunities for joint teaching, research, and projects
- Linking mobility cooperation with academic publishing and research impact

Target Group

The Staff Week is intended for:

- Academic staff
- International relations and Erasmus+ officers
- Coordinators of mobility and international programmes
